Born in 1910; son of an Essen businessman / joined Nazis in 1925; clever propagandist / editor of Voelkische Beobachter, and the Schwarze Korps and connected with Das Reich / in his work on Das Reich he was told to adopt a reasonable tone as GOEBBELS thought this would be the best means of impressing soldiers and officers who were to be provided with 'material for thought' by Das Reich; this publication was aimed at those who could not be caught by such vulgar sheets as the Schwarze Korps.

Editor of the SS newspaper Das Schwarze Korps / head of a special SS school in Berlin; this school is divided into two groups: one comprised of radio technicians, announcers, and special correspondents, and the other consists of 'dyed-in-the-wool' swindlers who make an art of provocation and falsehood; Emil JAKOBSON (q.v.) underwent training in this school and was later placed in a propaganda platoon of an SS police division; according to Jakobson, d'Alquen's staff of assistants are 'venal intriguers ready for the basest crimes...all sorts of cock-and-bull stories and nonsense are concocted there...provocation and false reports are fabricated.'

ALTENBERG, Dr. PAUL

At the German Legation; the Minister Prince ERBACH, was replaced on or about June 25, 1941 by Altenberg; his title is Representative Plenipotentiary of the Reich in Greece/ his able assistant at the Consulate is Dr. VOGEL: these would seem to be the only German military authorities in Greece to have very limited powers; Vogel is reported to have said openly that only the army had any real authority and that officers had several times disregarded the advice and instructions of Legation authorities.
